Meet the Author

Melissa Lawson is a native of Philadelphia. Her love of writing began as a teenager when she would write short stories and poems. Her love continued into adulthood when she had one of her poems, "Were You There", published while in college at North Carolina Central University. She was truly inspired to write about her experience at the "Million Woman March" in 1998. Her debut novel, "Two of Hearts" was released on May 26, 2015 to great reviews. She was inspired by her love of relationship research.

In addition to being an author, she is an educator, cheerleading coach, high school counselor and proud member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated. Melissa currently resides in the Philadelphia area with her husband and three children.

One woman. Two Men. Deep Secrets.

KYLA CARTER, a successful entertainment attorney, is newly engaged to the man of her dreams. VINCENT PRESTON is a successful financial analyst and romantic at heart who spares no expense to show Kyla his love and dedication. Things are seemingly perfect between them until the day that SALVATORE ROCCO reappears. Salvatore reminds Kyla that she can't escape her past, no matter how hard she tries. Salvatore's re-emergence opens up a Pandora's box containing secrets and lies that could be hard to close.

Kyla is faced with a difficult decision before her wedding day. Should she come clean to her fiancé about her haunting secrets and risk losing him or should she keep them all buried away for good and go on with her plans to become Mrs. Preston? Does Salvatore deserve another chance? Will her secrets and lies cost her everything? If Salvatore has anything to do with it, there will be no wedding. What Salvatore wants, Salvatore usually gets but will Kyla give it to him this time? Two of Hearts twists and turns to the very end as Kyla tries to decide which heart she must choose.
